We have to announce a change in our cast due to Andrew, our King, sadly having to withdraw from the pantomime before Christmas. We now thank Stephanie Housman for stepping in at such short notice and taking on the part of the Queen. We welcome her very much to the cast and for the speedy learning of her script and songs. Stephanie is known to the Society and has been a member for many years.

Our Christmas Bingo was well attended despite the very cold weather. Thank you to Nolan for calling the numbers and of course grateful thanks to Geraldine and Anne for organising it and for the other ladies who helped out. Much needed funds were made towards the cost of producing our pantomime.
